THIS DOCUMENT CONTAINS INFORMATION AFFECTING THE NATIONAL DEFENSE OF THE UNITED STATES WITHIN THE MEANING OF TITLE 18, SECTIONS 793 AND 794, OF THE U.S. CODE, AS AMENDED. ITS TRANSMISSION OR REVELATION OF ITS CONTENTS TO OR RECEIPT BY AN UNAUTHORIZED PERSON IS PROHIBITED BY LAW. THE REPRODUCTION OF THIS FORM IS PROHIBITED.

THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION

1. In April 1952, there were three check points along the Hungarian-Yugoslav frontier; they were at Szeged, Bacsalmás, and Mohács.
2. Only two companies of 130 men each, were detailed for border duty. Company headquarters were at Szeged and Mohács. Commanding officer of the company at Szeged was Lt. Sabaradny (fnu) and of the company at Mohács it was Lt. Kiskov (fnu). The guards carried Tokarev automatic rifles and PPSH revolvers.
3. It can generally be said that guarding on both the Hungarian and the Yugoslav side was rather lax. Roving guards did not cover the entire border line and crossing from one country to the other presented no great difficulty.
4. Relations between the soldiers of the two countries were friendly. Mutual visiting was prohibited but it was nevertheless a daily occurrence which was quietly tolerated by the officers of the respective countries.
5. Headquarters of the Hungarian guards for the Hungarian-Yugoslav frontier is at Pécs.

1. Comment: The name "Kiskov" appears to be of Russian origin. ~~Saharoff~~ could be a Hungarian name but it is probably misspelled.
